MEDIA ADVISORY

Capital Murder Suspect Arrested

On March 3, 2004, San Antonio Police responded to 12470 Starcrest #807 for a murder investigation (SAPD case #04-144398). Upon their arrival, they discovered Luther Scott, 03-10-73, dead from a gunshot wound. It was also discovered that the victim's car was stolen. The description of the car, including a license plate number, was broadcasted to law enforcement agencies and local media in an effort to locate the vehicle.

On 03-17-04, Detectives with the SAPD Homicide Office received information that the victim's car could possibly be located at 1638 Oakcask, which is located in west Bexar County. SAPD Homicide Detectives responded to that address and did in fact find the victim's car located in a garage. After a lengthy overnight investigation, Detectives applied for and were granted a Capital Murder warrant for the below listed suspect. That suspect was apprehended at 5380 Medical #1220 without incident. The suspect is currently in SAPD custody and will be taken to the City of San Antonio Detention Center for processing. The investigation will continue.

SUSPECT
